A RECORD BREAKING YEAR!

Our Christmas Adoption Day drew to a close bringing our total adoptions up to 541 for 2014. This is a new record that makes us proud!

It was also a record breaking year for adult dog adoptions. We waved goodbye to Parli, Echo, Bella and many others who wagged their way to a forever home. We noted more people opening their hearts and homes to adult dogs last year, a trend we hope will continue into 2015 and beyond.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT!

Moving forward into 2015, we hope to expand our reach and touch the lives of more street dogs and the communities in which they live. We would like to thank everyone who supported Embark last year!

AN UPDATE ON HOLLY

Remember little Holly from last month? She was rescued from the Colombo General Hospital with fractured leg and it was our Christmas wish that she would be walking before year's end.

A YEAR OF EDUCATION

This year a special focus was placed on promoting a world where people and animals live together in harmony. The Kindness is Happiness campaign and Time to Care gave us food for thought.

A CHRISTMAS BLESSING

Every day, rice bucket in hand, Arjuna walks the streets with a trail of eager dogs behind him. One October day, he happened upon Kukki who had been run over and was unable to stand.
