ROAD TO LOVE: YALA TO KURUNEGALA

A heartfelt request from Jetwing Yala got a joint team from Embark and Best Care Animal Hospital on the road and heading south.

The field team was surprised when they discovered four little fur-balls. One of the hotel dogs had recently littered and her brood was seeking shelter near a garbage dump. The pups were vaccinated, after which two were adopted by the general manager, who also decided that the remaining pups would remain in the hotel premises and be cared for by the staff!

AN APPEAL FROM EMBARK: HOLLY

This Christmas season, we ask you to spare a thought for victims of cruelty. Holly was found whimpering in pain with a fractured limb after she had been kicked or trampled. Our wish is to get her back on her feet before the end of the year.
